FRIDAY EVENING, DEC. 30.

SUBSCRIPTIONS TO THE EVENING WORLD Including Postage):

Vol. 88...... No.11,455

Entered at the Post-Office at New York as second

WORLD UPTOWN OFFICE-1267 BROADWAY. between 31st and 32d sts., New York, WORLD HARLEN OFFICE-128TH St. AND MADISON AVE. RROOKLYN-309 WASHINGTON ST. PHILADELPHIA, PA.-LEDGER BUILDING, 112 SOUTH STR ST. WASHINGTON-610 14TH ST.

THE WORLD will not, under any circum sinners, hold tiself responsible for the veturn or tom-keeping of any rejected manuscripts or pictures, of whatsoever character or value. ions will be made to this rule seith repark to either letters or inclosures. No will the editor enter into correspondence concerning unavailable manuscripis.

> THE WORLD'S record for Nonber shows the number of papers printed to have

11,767,090, which number is a gain

1,965,880

WORLDS for November. 1892, over Novemter, 1891. This is an sverage daily gain of 65,829.

The daily average of WORLDS printed during November was 392,236, and the daily average of WORLDS printed fo the first eleven months of 1892 has been

381,761. WORLD Advertise. ments for No vember, 1892, num-

68,749,

tered

e month's record unapproached by any other newspaper

Last glimpse of the old lenf to-morrow.

Nobody envies France its bloodless duels nor its ingenious dynamiters. The Cabinet-formers can keep

The Cabinet-formers can keep on making states. Mr. CLEVELAND will do The man who is willing to rell his silence is not, as a rule, a good fellow to

The fact that Jan. 1st falls on Sunday may add a little endurance to somebody's good resolutions.

Typhus lifts its head again in New York. But there is once more the ready heel of tory to a report on the question of a Na. the Health Board.

Let him who doesn't write '92 after tomorrow throw the first stone at the man who forgets his '93s.

Though the underground railway plans are blocked for the time, the iden of real rapid transit has by no means gone to fill s hole in the ground.

Ex Dive Keeper Tom Gould, posing as a pamper, presents a speciacle which ought | refuse to co-operate with any representato make even a statue of Justice lose its pose for very laughter.

Good healthful reading matter will be plentiful in New York next week. A Governor's message and a Mayor's mesage will come all together.

What a disappointment that the lakes and rivers should have frozen solid before any one had even suggested the possibility of an ice famine.

Of course a September session of the new Congress may accomplish much towards the harvest the people expect. But think what seeds might be well sown at a gathering in the Spr ng.

ease of twins? If two heirs were born at There is a report that Cannegiz asked first-born was entitled go to the child that for a truce at Homestead. He and his co. first made its entry into the world? If adjutors should ask one thing more—the so, what proof would be required to espardon of houset labor for their malad tablish the seniority, and what safeguard ministration of a great trust. would there be against a Little Buttercup-Hale old GLadstonn! Eighty three years old resterday, and about to start have an important bearing on a very bravely in on the work of remodelling a interesting case now occupying the attengovernment. A wonder of the age, in. tion and time of the overworked Supreme deed, and to be the wonder of ages.

Criminal carelessness reigned supreme at one Chicago grade crossing, vesterday. And four lives paid the sacrifice. There is only one way to deal with such fatal upon to decide is. Which of the two is the neglect of duty- as ateruly as with first born and heir to the Chief Inspector

Justice Parranson administered a stern brought into the world as Inspector a few rebuke yesterday to a pair of usurers who minutes before ALEXANDER, but ALEXAN-

and been doing a thriving business under | DER took the cath of office an hour or so high-sounding corporate name. He earlier than Paren. ALEXANDER claims also blocked them in one effort to grind that the seniority must be settled by the money out of the poor. It is unfortunate time of taking the oath, which is much that Justice Patterson and men like him | the same as claiming, in the case of twins cannot have the opportunity to deal di- of a more tender age, that the question of rectly and according to their deserts primogeniture must be decided not by with the extertionists of the Reading coal; the moment of coming into the world,

NO FURTHER ADVANCE.

decline in prices from an over-supply.

who are perishing from cold and hunger.

crease their stealing for a few months.

IS IT A JOB?

rather, only a single individual made an offer for the privilege, which he subsequently duplicated in a slightly modified

The Secretary informed his audience that the franchise offered was free of in cumbrance, all obstacles having been overcome by the Commission: that the consent of property owners had been obtained; that accurate surveys had been

Mr. Amony, an adventurous capitalist, solitary bidder.

rapid transit on stills.

tional Quarantine.

Quarantine grounds.

Federal Government.

A QUARANTINE QUARRET.

It is to be hoped that ex-Surgeon-General Hamilton is mistaken in his story about the alleged refusal of Health Officer JENKINS to allow him to accompany

Senator CHANDLER to the Quarantine

According to Gen. HAMILTON, Dr.

JENKINE felt aggrieved because he had said during the cholers scare that a vessel highest degree. If Dr. JENEINS should and assistance of eminent physicians at the time of the cholera excitement and was jealous of the interference of the OFFICIAL TWINS.

Does the law of primogeniture recog served "and make a distinction in the one birth, would the estate to which the

These are nice points of law, and they

Court to the exclusion of less important

New York has been biest with twin

Inspectors of Police, and the momentous question the Supreme Court is called ship? The twins are PETER CONLIN and

ALEXANDER S. WILLIAMS. PETER WAS

like mixing up of the babies?

litigation.

nize the principle of "first come first grounds on a visit of inspection prepara-

people any further at present.

robbery for a time.

that the babies were mixed up as in the most cruel degree. case of Ralph Backstraw and the Captain The Coal Parons have generously anprice of coal any higher this year. That be distinguished one from the other. So of coal, they will be satisfied with the of identification. The only point to be operation, and will not seek to rob the the Chief Inspectorship, and as both the unjust charges. claumants came into existence as inspectors on the same day, common sense This coal conspiracy has thrown housands of people out of employment seems to dictate that the Police Commisby stopping the work at the mines in sioners might well award the prize to the order to limit the output and prevent a man they deem the fittest to bear the honor.

they have caused untold suffering and AN ANARCHIST REVIVAL. privation by their arbitrary advancement of the cost of coal just as the Winter Prefecture of Police in Paris yesterday set in. They now find that their greed is attributed to the Anarchists who call has caused a cessation of the distribution themselves the avengers of RAVACROL. of coal among the outdoor poor and has The affair is not supposed to have any raised an indignant outery against the connection whatever with the Panama relief the law can be made to give them. cruel conspiracy. So they find it good scandal, although the political agitation policy to notify their victims that they resulting from the canal disclosures is beshall not be subjected to any additional lieved to have encouraged the renewal of the dynamite outrages. The people will not be satisfied with his. The generous concession will not deny that the explosion was the work of warm the shivering, freezing poor nor some of their number. Indeed, they seek save the lives of their suffering children to encourage that belief, in the hope of Neither will the law, it is hoped, suffer these robbers to get away with the r plunder and continue their illegal conspiracy because they promise not to inlenient treatment of the man Francois. dering. who was recently extradited from London on a charge of connection with the Cafe

The attempt to sell the Rapid-Transit A well-known Anarchist is reported as franchise at auction yesterday was not a saving: "So long as human beings die success. Notwithstanding the eloquence of hunger by the side of those who die Harlem than the whiskered bah-hahof the Secretary of the Commission, who set forth in glowing language the great themselves by every means in their and extraordinary advantages the fortupower." nate possessor of the franchise would secure, only a single bid was received, or chists at this time might aid the Govern- dead, drawn and dressed for cooking, in ment instead of adding to its embarrassment by exciting alarm among the people they can rely upon for protection.

THE GRAND OLD STATESMAN.

warden reached the eighty-third annivermade; that all remaining to be done was sary of his birth. His Queen was among the first to send the venerable statesman just to go ahead and build the road. Still his appeal, "What is bid for the frauchise?" secured a response from only one continuance of his health and vigor.

It is a wonderful sight to see Mr. GLADstone entering his " four score years and offered first $500 in money and one-half of one per cent, of the receipts. This he four" at the head of the British Ministry. subsequently modified by a bid of $1,000 pushing forward great schemes of reform spot cash and no per cent. Mr. Amony with untiring energy, guiding the policy estimated that one-half of one per cent. of a great Empire with a firm hand, harwould not the city $50,000 a year, which monizing discordant elements among his friends, battling boldly against the would make the receipts $10,006,000 auschemes and attacks of his enemies, and anally. One thousand dollars cast down bent on carrying to success before his was not a very liberal bid for such a busideath the measures on which he believes the continued prosperity, happiness and The Commissioners evidently con sidered that they might as well sell the safety of his country depend.

It will be fortunate for England if Mr. tranchise to a junk shop. Ho after a brief GLADSTONE's life is spared until he has executive session they rejected Mr. accomplished the work he has under-Amony's bid, and made the appouncetaken and to which the remainder of his ment that they would now give up the days will be devoted. Despite his adunderground enterprise and see what vanced age there is every reason to hope could be done to increase the facilities of that he has still some years of public usefulness before him. His intellect is as Is this a nicely arranged Manhattan ob? Ought the Commissioners to clear and brilliant as ever; he passed speedily and so jauntily abandon the through the labor and excitement of a work of securing real rapid transit, for heated election without injury to his which they were appointed? Will the health, and he has shown himself equal people be satisfied with the Elevated to the task of controlling a restless and railroads? Will those roads give them to extend the trolley system south of the Harlem River and to "gridiron" the principle streets on this side of the river with its tracks. He signed the resolution giving the Company that privilege the which full arrangements have been comday after it had been passed by the Alder-passed by the Health Officer was foul. In It is not very long since Mayor GRANT revenge Dr. JENKINS is alleged to have was strongly opposed to overhead wires notified Seuntor CHANDLES that the Gen. eral would not be allowed to visit the in the public thoroughfares, and declared that not another wire should be strung while he was Mayor. As the trolley sys. Such action on the part of the Health Officer would be reprehensible in the tem necessitates more disfiguring and more dangerous overhead wires than any telegraph or telephone line, the Mayor seems to have undergone a very radical in railway construction. change of views.

Mr. Gtanstove is truly a man, and all the people of America will join in wishing him many happy returns of the day he celebrated yesterday.

A HASTY CONSENT.

tive of the General Government in efforts to improve quarantine methods for the As popular sentiment condemns the use of trolls, cars in any part of the city, it protection of the people, he would certainly be unfit for the important trust would have been more becoming if Mayor confided to him. The ex-Surgeon-Gen-GRANT had left the question of its exteneral is a competent authority on quaransion south of the Harlem to be decided by Hight the palate of man are said to have been in tine matters. The chief complaint against his successor instead of hurriedly signing vented in the middle ages. Dr. JENKINS is that he declined the advice

a resolution rushed through the Board of

A MUCH NEEDED PROTECTION.

Justice Patterson's decision vesterday taking of the property, will be very generally approved and applanded. The all but about $2,000 being redeemed. That but by the date of cutting the first tooth. There is no pretense in this instance transaction was shown to be naurious in a smount was unaccounted for. Mayor Wan-

In the opinion handed down with the counced that they will not advance the of the Pinafore. The twins can readily decision the Judge very severely condemns the practice of the loan agencies is to say, having added from a doller to a the learned Supreme Court judges will in lending money to poor people when dollar and a half a ton to the retail cost not be puzzled by any intricate question they are in dire want, and then forcing millions they will realize from that little decided is, which is the rightful hetr to est through all sorts of subterfuges and

It is well known that many of these them until they are entirely ruined. It is gratifying to find the courts ready to decide against the harpies and to extend The bomb explosion in the office of the as much protection as possible to their victims. If persons who are pressed and

THE BUCKO KNEW NOT PEPSIN.

JOHN McKow, of Stapleton, S. I., had a billy goat that fattened on BRIDGE The Anarchiets make no attempt to Firzogrand's clothes line. It passed by banquets of old ovster-cans and feasts of hungry eye on the clothes line. When reviving the feeling of terror that pre- the line blossomed with a red flannel vailed at the time of the Ravachol plots. shirt or a calico Mother Hubbard, the The police think that the new movement goat proceeded cautiously to the spread is designed to frighten the authorities into and let its appetite loose among the laun-

The goat grew fat on its dry goods or drying goods diet, and Mr. McKow pointed proudly to him as an animal worthy of a place in a picture of the zodiac. There wasn't a finer bucko in all from indigestion, the former will avenge haber of Staten Island, and Mr. McKow was justified in worrying about him when he disappeared. He looked for the goat, An aggressive movement of the Anar- of course, and finally found him hanging the Fitzgerald barn.

BRIDGET add that for the life of her she and reminding them that the fearless and didn't know how the goat came to be in resolute action by the authorities is all the barn. Mr. McKow had his doubts, Cambridge and some the Oxford marks put the value of the goat. BRIDGET will now first August Monday years ago. probably claim that as the goat lived off Yesterday the Grand Old Man of Ha. her clothes-line she was simply making her congratulations and wishes for the something of a Solomon to decide the tion showed that the crossing of electricprolongation of his valuable life and a case. In the mean while the goat's funeral > Appended to the cable report of the micides of two more unfortunates at Monte Carlo is the statement that, "the gambling tables are doing a flourishing business." Yes, "men may come and nen may go." but the demon of the game never coases his evil business and never tails to find that fatal weakness on which his success depends. There are things man never learns even from his fellowman's saddest experiences.

Rather a startling incident of a banquet, that in Salvador, when a policeman entered the hall and arrested a miserable wretch who confessed that he was there with the purpose of assassinating President Exera, the guest of honor. The occurrence could not have been particularly appetizing to the gentleman chiefly interested.

That enterprising burglar who plun Blackwell's Island did not set a vain example. His precedent has been followed by thieres who broke juto the Onondaga

Tom Reed, of Maine, says he was never asked to a dinner when he was Speaker and kept from making a speech. We'd like to look at a banquet after a combined opposition had tried to subdue lered Warden Prissuar's house on County Penitentiary and or one of the workshops.

Senator CHANDLES finds New York well equipped to meet cholers. But New York done cannot keep out the dread visitant. It did not take Mayor Grant long to Pestilence is well equipped for its deadly make up his mind as to the propriety of work at any point. At every point, then allowing the Union Railway Corporation it must be met with effective precautions.

> There is no reason to doubt that the duel between one New York bookkeeper and one aggrieved Greenpointer, for pleted, will be fully as murderous as the atest affair of honor in France.

WORLDLINGS.

It is said that in no other nation besides the United States are handcuffs made use of to se sure criminals. The railway line between the Mansion Hou and Adgate Station, in London, cost $10,000 0.0 a mile to build—a greater amount per mi than was probably ever expended before or sin A telegraphic signal passes from end to end of

More musbrooms are raised in the vicinity Paris than in any other place in the world. Many of the most appetizion soups that de-

Royal Baking Powder.

THE GOVERNMENT TESTS

ESTABLISH ITS ABSOLUTE SUPERIORITY.

(Data from the latest Official U. S. Government Report on Baking Powders, Department of Agriculture, Bulletin 13. page 500.)

powders, actual strength, 160.6 cubic inches of leavening gas per ounce of powder.

presence of alum or sulphuric acid.

by the Government officers who made the tests.

being 33 per cent. less.

Royal is placed first of the cream of tartar

Every other powder tested exhibited a much

Every other powder likewise showed the

The claim that this report shows any other powder of superior strength or purity has been denounced as a falsehood

lower strength than the Royal, the average

THE CLEANER

prohibiting the enforcement of a chattel sort issued by the city during the scarcits of tortgage by a loan association and the fractional currency at the beginning of the rethem to pay exorbitant and ruinous inter- currency Mr. Nevin will realize a good thing sik enhanced with shoulder straps, belt, streamers, and bows in blue ribbon, streaked with reformatory fanatic.

last evening by William P. St. John to Miss colored theatrical posters and kept its Winnie Davis, the "Daughter of the Confederacy." It followed a brilliant theatre party at Daly's. There were twenty-three guests, occupying four boxes. The supper feast in the forest of Arden in " As You Like It," which Mr. St. John and his guests had just witnessed. The tables were dressed with pheasants and other wild fowl, boars' heads and the like, after the fashion of those of the stage.

however, and he has sued Bridger for on at the swan-hopping ceremonial of the

A long-range fire is the latest novelty conflagrations. Up in Chenango County : ready to feast off her own washing, if few days ago $28,000 worth of property was she makes any acknowledgment at all of destroyed by a blaze the origin of which was the killing of the goat. It will take a seeming mystery until a close investigalight wires thirty miles away was the cause. The heavy current was communicated to a elephone in the building where the fire started

This is President Purroy's last day at the Fire Department Headquarters, and to-morrow he assumes the title of County Clerk. Yesterday he was presented with a handsomely engrossed set of resolutions and au album containing portraits of the officers is the Department and employees at headquarters. The famous trial-room will look strange without Mr. Purroy's rubicund figure in the Presidential chair.

There is nothing particularly formidable about Mr. Purroy, but on trial days I have seen stalwart firemen, who have braved death without flinching, turn pale and tremble when arraigned on some trivial charge, and stammer forth apologies and excuses in reply to the President's questions, particularly when the piercing gaze of Richard Croker was abroad. * Snow shovels are moving out of storage. * The northern section of the storage. * Col storage. * * The northern city is overrun by stray dogs. changing presents of Christmas gloves.

SPICED SCISSORINGS.

Fain Would View the Wreck.

t afford to build a public library or to en

Schaefer Special Holiday Brew

Walking Sticks. START FROM HOME TEN MIN

UTES EARLIER THAN USUAL, call at our shop on your way down town, and see the stylish canes we are showing at

All handsomely Sterling-Silver Trimmed

HESITATE to ask you Ten Dollars for a Baltimore letter yesterday several queer bits of paper fluttered to the floor. They were eleven pieces of fractional scrip of the bellion. After the war this scrip was called in, ser's letter was a demand for the face value of the eleven pieces of scrip. They were in values of 5 cents and upward and aggregated 75 cents. The Mayor sent the 75 cents to ribbon and bows droop on each side of the skirt, others connect the throatlet with the beit. the Baltimore man and presented the antiquated scrip to Clerk Nevin. As dealers in with lace or ribbon ruche; short puckered sleeves and skirt, with flounce to correspond. such curios are paying fancy prices for the No. 3. Princess under dress, cut square and low at the neck, in turquoise-blue pongec

Justice Welds, introduced a povetry when he held police court on the aldewalk in front loans are made the instruments of the of the Harlem Temple of Justice yesterday to most outrageous frauds. Thousands of save an invalid prisoner the trouble and pain people who once get into the hands of or leaving her carriage, and he tempered these extertionists never get free from Justice with that mercy that is likened unto the gentle dew of heaven when he dismissed the charge of attempted suicide in the Jace of uncontrovertible evidence of the truth of the charge. The accused was Mrs. Catherine Callahan, of 229 East One Hundrel and Twenty-seventh street, who leaped into the harried by loan associations will resist all airshaft and fell five stories on Nov. 22, when attempts at extortion and appeal to the she found her baby hanging dead by the courts they will be sure to receive all the strap to its carriage. Her right arm and leg and three ribs were broken, and she has been a presoner-patient in Harlem Hospital eve since under what the Gleaner calls the most idiotic law that ever was invented by the

That was a unique suppor given at Sherry's

Visitors to Central Park may now enjoy s treat if they admire swans. The salendid swannery of the late Joan Hoey, purchased by a New York dealer, has been placed in the Park. It includes specimens of many rare varieties, including whistlers, mutes, Polish immutables and Australian black swans. Many of the birds bear the "crown marks" stamped on their mandibles in accordance with a British law. Some of them are fifty to one hundred years old, and were stamped be-siding the investigation.

Quaker City Life.

The bargain-seeking woman i storage warehouses are not doing much business these days. * * Store people are busy ex-

Place a Turkey, if Not a Library. This is the time of year for the man who can-college to drop a turkey or a sluy of beef into the slot of a deserving family. A properly placed turkey in the recording angel's book ranges right up side of an endowed female

A Large Hat. Large hat in dead-leaf brown felt, trimmewith snots and wings of mauve velvet, sho with bronze and gold : velvet roses, shaded to match, and large, full ospreys, graduating from brown at the stem to mauve at the tip-A brown velvet band and a rose at the left their kind and very graceful. They are caught together at the nape of the neck with

MEN'S FURNISHERS WOULDN'T

by pinning them -the covers, not the bables horse-blanket safety pins, which are of larger size than the ordinary nursery pins, and with these has no difficulty in piercing the thick-ness of blankets and spread. Another mother makes nightgowns of flannel for her boys and girls alike, till they are five years old, with long stirts attached. These have a hem and with large figures or flowers are worn only ing. these appearing in excelle abirring tape at the bottom, and when they by married women. The dress of single won plain white muslin. Braces and fly bow in short ribbon. No. 6. Coat in pale chartreuse vicuna, embellished with a falling lace flounce forming collar, and extending as spiral plaits on the sides; full Princess front in illac de laine or

Be Coreful of the Children.

A careful mother keeps her small children

No. 4. Double skirt in white muslip, embroidered at the edge in washing silk or cotton.

andyked rows of gagings simulate a corselet round the full bodice, the top of which describes a point where meet in a cross the shoulder-straps and binding of the bodice in plaid ibbon, connected together under a jaunty bow in keeping with that in the hair. A band of tiny tucks Inishes off each puffed sleeve, forming a slight frill at the edge.

No. 5. Low full Bedice, demi-long sleeves and short skirt in white canvas, strewn with salmon-ping and terra-cotta spots in chenille. K-aulers in accordion plaitings to correspond with the foot kilting, the narrower frilling round the walst, and opening of the bodies

No. 7. Pale shell-pink poplin or cashmere shot apple-green, and ornamented with a corduroy crepon, crossed with vandykes and bows in metallic ribbon.

gathered at the walst.

Call a Halt in Thur.

sake of the days that are coming, a matron

Ranana Salad.

She Observed.

stand in a cold place one hour and serve.

tration or wearisome invalidism.

should have called a halt in time.

what she did the other evening :

Frecks for Little Girls.

insel galon, which surrounds the tunic sleeves. Toby collar, and the bodice slightly the restless legs free to toss without uncov Once in awhile you might call a hait to your Another mother with a family of five chilwearisome work. You should pack up a little dren, has cach provided with ankle-covering oag and run away for a three days' visit, knitted slippers with soft woolly sole; these leaving the housekceping to the young shoul are always kept under the pillows of the chil- irons. See that all articles are start ders, which will find it only a small burden. It is an imperative dury occasionally to take dren, and they are taught not to touch their bare feet to the floor, slipping their slippers Just how one can make tumpy starch care of one's capital if one be a wife and a mother. In the interest of the rest, for the tive; chances of cold are much enhanced or and each time, to thin it, boiling water must be provident of her own bealth, not lessened according as these are exposed or not cold. suffering herself to drift into nervous pros protected. There are graves, not a few, over which the Pronounced in Different States. inscription might be written: "Here lies Pete sar on a log by the river side, (Mass.) Mary —, the beloved wife of Theodore —, tired to death." And in most cases the blame

And near him ser his promised bride; (Me.) They sur there proud and satisfied not Theodore's, but Mary's own. She To sir like that until they died. But, as they sare upon that log.

Peel and cut six bananas into thin silces, then pour over them fruit salad dressing;

In nearly every Southern State a woman does the work of State Labrarian. The Legis-She is one of those dreadful girls who oblature of Mississippi has elected a woman to that position for the past twenty years. In served everything new in musical or scientific circles, and she springs it upon he Kentucky and Tennessee for almost as many friends at inopportune moments. This is years women have held the office at handome salaries. The Secretary of State of Young Screechim had just sung one of his Tennessee, in whose office the Librarian avorite airs, and there was the usual apworks, says tu a private letter : " Since we plause, after which the girl who observe have had women in the office they have not only given satisfaction in the work, but have "I heard the other day that a donker rendered the office where the work is done far more comfortable and attractive." arolina pays its Librarian, a woman, $2,100 And she wondered why no one broke the a year. West Virginia has a woman as assistappalling silence that settled on the com ant custodian of all public buildings, prop-

Tortoise Shell.

the State Library.

erty, &c., and in that capacity has charge of Tortoise shell as it comes to market from he West Indies is coarse, dirty and lustreless, and only the most skilful and patient manipulation makes it the rich and beautiful material it eventually becomes.

The ignorance of young housekeepers has ong been the subject of many jokes, but it is not humroous ; it is serious, as the trials and troubles in many otherwise happy house holds can testify. It may be old-fashioned but it is an opinion backed by many husbands whose wives' helplessness has well nigh driven them to despair, that a co-operative housekeeping plan should be established from the time the daughter is able to toddie. Let her have her little duties to attend to, from lling the sait cellars ; let her progress step by step through the cultury department the management of the home, the art of entertaining, and every other detail that come into a competent housekeeper's life, and then when she is called upon to go to market or ook a dinner in her own home her husband need not have any foars as to what will be set before him or his guests, or any qualms as to the manner of its preparation

She Knows Marine Architecture. Miss Herreshoff, daughter of the famous blind designer of yachts, is almost as well posted as her father on everything pertaining to marine architecture, and it is with he #### important portions of his work. French Rules of Dressing.

Unmarried women dress much more simply than married ones in Paris. Young girls are forbidden handsome faces, jet, costly juwels, and never appear in the house or on the reliow in color, nor in black entirely, there always being some color to relieve it. Govern are in bed the tape is drawn and tied, leaving men is usually of a cheaper material than moonstones that worn by married women, and this No. 1 Full high bodice and cibow sleeves in white veiling, stripped with shaded siks, and spective or age. Velvets and satins are: worn by young girls. set off with broad belt and hem band in open gimp work on plak silk. Dark green velvet

In the matter of outside cover or young unmarried women never appea dolmans or long wraps, these being com to the married. They do wear, howe No. 2. Bodice gaged at the neck and at the waist, in pompador washing slik, trimmed ulaters, or short coats daintly embroide or very lightly braided, heavy embroider silver. Empire frock falling loose from the yoke in white Russian net or gauze; friiled braiding and brading being an exch privilege of their married sisters.

Bonnets are never worn by young la their headgear consists principally of h quiet in decoration. The only species of allowed them is the pale pink wild rose, the restriction already mentioned in res to jet of any character applies as well their hats. Feathers, algreties, light is ribbon, and even a very little velvet. form hat decoration for the unmarried.

The Only Woman Horse-Tamer. Mrs. Chaloner, of Newmarket, is the of woman horse trainer in the world. Surgularly licensed by the Jockey Clab, a has a training establishment where she training for herself and patrons.

Kidney Soup.

One best kidney, two ounces flour, one in onion, two ounces butter, four pints wa one carrot, one turnip, a little pepper sait, herbs and celery, two or three clo lemon juice. Skin the kidney and cut it a small pieces, roll in the flour; fry thee and kitiney in a stew-pan with the but when quite brown add one pint water, car turning cloves, pepper, salt, herbs and or water; simmer slowly for three hours. ione squeeze in a little lemon juice. The Arthmentative Woman

The woman who enjoys arguing me she was revels in the sound of her own a and will take up the cudgels for or aga and will take up the cudgels for or aga regardless of any truthful conviction shappy for the sake of an argument. It say it rains she will contend that the thines gioriously: If you are warm fur is continually rubbed the wrong way, one never hears a purr, but a constant a ng and yowling issuing from her lips. frequently lead to bitter quarrels. woman who says "I think you are mista and gods no further when she sees the of opposition rising flercely in rebell wiser than she who contends to the last, bittering those of contrary views and be ing herself worn out in the struggle, I are right time will prove it, and life short tolendanger friendships by words hat seidom, if ever, result satisfactorily

Stationers.

In new stationery pale lilac, with according monogram in darker tone, is shown. and dark green are also shown, and dark with white lettering is also a novelty. there are many who never use anythin the white Irish linen with the add silver or gold. Unpunctuated letters an growing to be a fashionable fad.

Melston the desired quantity of starch bowl, adding sufficient water to me liquid, then pour over the boiling water you have's clear starch. This must too thick or it will invariably stick the wrong side and the starch well rul on as often as they leave the bed. The porce not tell. If, after you have added the of the soles of the feet are peculiarly sensi- bolling water, it becomes jelly-like when andled ginger, the yolks of six and w of three eggs, one plat cream, and loaf (N. II.) in one gill of milk, a glass of sherry. To (Conn.) quart mould, butter it well, and or (lt. I.) with candied ginger; make a custard d And sor his teeth in Peter's hide— (Vt.) thick enough, then dissolve the golath They sets no more by the river side, (N. J.) milk and add to the custard; stir in a gis sherry and pour into the mould, and

aside to seny

We had thought it only a weakness fair sex, a correspondent writes, to disabused us of this notion. On the vards it is almost as common to see worshipping at this shrine as to see standing in adoration before it. We prepared, as yet, to say that the well-Frenchman is vain, but the care he b pon his facial adornments, and part upon his mustache, has raised within uspicion of this kind, and the pend shows for poeing before these publicater present mirrors has somewhat str ened that suspicion.

Fancy Dress Costume. The coquettish costume shown in selongs to the fancy dress character" The bodice and overshirt are of satis two contrasting colors, the tabs of and bodice tipped with wills. if match. Bells on the gloves and waist

Extremely chie, though a terri womin without a maid; is th